IN A STRANGE LAND

Death Fronts Hazen Senter Fin-free in the Last of His Earthly Struggles.

DEAD WITH HIS SON ALONE NIGH

Passes Away Peacefully, Without Speaking a Word—End of a Long Foreign Tour—His Public Career.

London, June 19.—Ex-Governor H. S. Pingree, of Michigan, died here last night at 11:35. His son was the only one present at the time. The attending doctor left Pingree's bedside at about 11:15, promising to return shortly. H. S. Pingree, Jr., who had been watching at his father's side for four days, and who has not removed his clothes during that time, noticed a sudden change in his father's condition.

He had hardly reached the bedside when his father died peacefully, without warning, and without speaking one word. Young Mr. Pingree has wired his mother and his uncle in the United States not to come to London. The body will be embalmed and taken to his home.

Mrs. Pingree at New York.
New York, June 19.—Mrs. Hazen S. Pingree, widow of ex-Governor Pingree, whose death in London was announced last night by cable, arrived in this city from Detroit yesterday morning with her daughter, Hazel H. Pingree, and her husband's brother, F. C. Pingree. The party had started from Detroit as soon as they learned of the seriousness of the illness of Governor Pingree in London, but received a cablegram early yesterday that there was no use of continuing their journey as the governor's condition was so bad they would arrive in London too late. Last night they received a cable telling of his death.

Widow Returns to Detroit.
No plans for the funeral have been made by the family. Mrs. Pingree and her daughter went back to Detroit today. The widow and daughter were escorted back home by F. C. Pingree, who will then immediately return to this city to await the arrival of the remains, which H. S. Pingree, Jr., or "Joe," as he is called, who was with his father in London when he died, will bring to this city on the steamship Umbria, which leaves Saturday and will reach here in about a week.

WAS A PINE TREE STATE MAN.

Served the Union in the Artillery—His Michigan Political Career.

Detroit, Mich., June 19.—Hazen Senter Pingree was born at Denmark, Me., in 1840. In 1862 he enlisted in the First Massachusetts heavy artillery, and served until the end of the war, when he located in Detroit, embarking in the manufacturing of shoes. In 1889 the Republican party nominated Pingree for mayor of Detroit, and he was elected by over 2,000 majority. He was re-elected in 1891-93-95, by increased majorities each time. In 1896 he was elected governor of Michigan by 53,000 plurality, running ahead of the national ticket by 26,000 votes. He was re-elected governor in 1898 by about 100,000 plurality, and served out his term, which expired in 1900. Last March he started on the trip to South Africa which ended in his death at London.

Pingree, while he was mayor, accomplished many municipal reforms, among others forcing the gas company to lower its rates 50 cents per 1,000; establishing the public lighting plant; organizing the Detroit railway on a three-cent fare basis; lowering telephone rates, and breaking up a number of alleged sewer and paving rings that were thriving when he came into office. His potato patch scheme for the relief of the poor of the city was extensively copied, and brought him much fame.

While governor he devoted his energies toward securing a law taxing railroads and other corporate property on an ad valorem basis instead of specifically, on their earnings. His efforts resulted in the passage of a law along these lines by the last legislature. Pingree is survived by a widow and two children—a son and a daughter.

News Received at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 19.—Immediately after assembling of the common council last night the death of ex-Governor Pingree was formally announced.

FARMERS CORNER A MISCREANT

Desperado Who Cambers the Earth Run Down in the Buckeye State.

Chillicothe, O., June 19.—A posse of farmers has surrounded a strip of woodland near here, and the sheriff has been sent for to assist in the capture of a desperado who operated here Monday night on a wholesale scale. Beginning with a holdup on the street the desperado entered the residences of Mrs. John Davis, Frank Woltz and James Carroll, at the latter place attempting to outrage one of Carroll's daughters.

From there the thug went to Kitchick, six miles north, where he entered the house of John Moss and made a determined attempt to outrage the wife of Moss, who was alone. She fought him off and aroused the neighbors. The robber fled and pursuit was taken up by a posse which tracked the fellow to a piece of woods, where it has him surrounded.

Declined to Condemn Secret Society Men.
Jamestown, N. Y., June 19.—In the Swedish Lutheran synod yesterday the report of a committee recommending that the clause in the constitution providing that no member of the Masonic order, or other secret or athletic society should be entitled to membership in the church or the synod was defeated after a warm discussion. The synod then adjourned sine die.

Stronger Case Against Jessie Morrison.
Eldorado, Kan., June 19.—The dying statement of Mrs. Castle was presented by the prosecution yesterday at the trial of Jessie Morrison for the murder of Mrs. Castle. The attorneys for Miss Morrison objected to the introduction of the statement, but Judge Ackman admitted it almost entirely. The parts eliminated are not important.

AS VIEWED BY ANDREWS

Professor Thinks We Are Cutting Off
More Than a Big "Cheese."

Chicago, June 18.—President E. Benjamin Andrews, of Nebraska university, is at the Palmer House. He is here to attend the Chicago university convocation. He said: "Whether we like it or not, we are committed to being a world power. The question is, are the American people to remain sane? A bully is not sane. The Monroe doctrine should be maintained, but not by a dog-in-the-manger policy. Undoubtedly Germany will enter South America, unless we protect those states, not by military aggression, but by helping them toward progress.

"German civilization is committed to progress in all the world, and that country cannot be expected to lie back forever and let the South American states go to the dogs. The Nicaragua Canal must be American, but we are under obligations to England by the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. High-handed measures will not do. I think Secretary Hay has been patriotic."

BARKER TRIAL NOT SPICY

Witness Not Permitted by the Court to Tell That Sort of Story.

New York, June 19.—The second day of the trial at Jersey City of Thomas G. Barker for the shooting of the Rev. John Keller at Arlington was full of objections by counsel and clear-cut, cold and sharp rulings by the presiding judge. Both principals went on the stand during the day. Barker wanted to get in the story of what his wife told him about Keller's alleged assault—but every attempt to testify that way was defeated by objections that good lawyers here say will stand.

The prosecution tried to introduce the eye taken from Keller's head. It was presented in a bottle of alcohol, but was barred out as gruesome and having no bearing on the case. Dr. Strasser, one of the doctors who attended Mr. Keller, told of the wounds and gave expert testimony that Mr. Keller was shot from behind.

MUST HAVE THE MOB'S LAW

No Statute Against Perjury in Arkansas, It Would Appear.

Little Rock, Ark., June 19.—A special from Camden says: Tom Watson, who, with his wife, swore that the negro, Will Bussey, had committed an assault on Mrs. Watson, was taken out by a committee of citizens in Camden Monday night and given 500 lashes. The affidavit of Watson and his wife was the means of Bussey being sentenced to hang the latter part of this month.

About three weeks ago Mrs. Watson made a written statement confessing that she had sworn falsely against Bussey. The confession so incensed the citizens that they decided to punish Watson, whose wife swore that he was compelled by him to testify against the negro.

nounced. A committee on resolutions was appointed and then the body adjourned until today, when formal action will be taken respecting the death of the late ex-governor.

CZAR COUNTERSAGAIN

Hits Another Blow in the Affectionate Tariff War Now Going on Between Us.

PUTS A HIGH TAX ON OUR COAL OIL

Because We Have Put Duty on His,
None of Which Comes Here—We Say He Struck First.

Washington, June 19.—A new development of the Russo-United States tariff war, which isn't a tariff war because it is so friendly, is the imposition by the Russian government, as officially notified to this government, of the highest Russian duty on United States white resin or caladin, galapal, white resin under article 82 of the Russian tariff law, and increasing the rate on American bicycles under article 173 of the Russian laws. This has nothing to do with the sugar business, except that both are in accordance with the Russian policy, which is to hit the man who hits you and on March 9 last we put tariff restrictions on Russian petroleum. The Russian order goes into effect Friday, June 21.

Why Our Duty Was Imposed.
At the treasury department it is stated that the imposition of a duty on petroleum was not a matter within the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, but was made mandatory by the Dingley tariff act, which directs the secretary, in case any foreign country imposes a duty on petroleum imported from the United States, to levy a like duty on petroleum imported from that country. As Russia collects a duty on petroleum imported from the United States, this government, in compliance with law, imposes a duty on Russian petroleum. In no sense, it is stated, can this duty be regarded as an unjust discrimination against Russian petroleum, as that country took the initiative against the American article. Had Russia not taken this step her petroleum would have been admitted to this country free of duty, under the terms of the tariff act.

Our State Secretary Protests.
In his reply to Count Cassini's note, which was transmitted to the treasury department, Secretary Gage protests against the implied contention that this government's action was a discrimination against Russia, and adds: "I beg leave to submit for your consideration the question whether the measure now adopted by the imperial government is not incompatible with the rights of the United States under the existing treaty of commerce and navigation with Russia." According to the Russian view the duty laid against Russian petroleum is inexplicable from the fact that no Russian petroleum comes to this country.

Hits a Large Trade Heavily.
It is said that the United States trade in bicycles and the resins specified are quite large in Russia, so that the increased duties will bear heavily upon these branches of United States trade. As a result representations are being made in behalf of these manufacturers to induce the state department to intercede with Russia for an abatement of the high rates.

TARIFF ISSUE IS EMPHASIZED.

No Help for Those Hurt Unless Given by the Supreme Court.

This latest retaliation on the part of Russia emphasized the issue which had arisen previously over Russian sugar. Owing to the tariff war growing out of the sugar decisions pressure has been brought to bear upon the government through commercial and industrial channels, to secure an adjustment with Russia. In some cases special interests—machinery in particular—have addressed themselves to the administration by petition and letters, and through influential senators and representatives in congress, with a view to some action on the part of the government which will afford the Russian government a basis for a removal of the restriction upon American imports and a recurrence of the old state of affairs.

The situation, however, is such that the government does not feel itself able to move in the direction desired, at any rate at this moment. The board of appraisers has affirmed the correctness of the sugar decision of the collector of customs, and only one possible channel of relief remains open for the persons who desire to admit the Russian sugar on its old terms, namely, action by the judicial branch of the government.

The executive branch, looking to the disposition of a test case before the supreme court at the next term—for, in view of its international importance, such a case will be made special—does not see its way clear to take any steps now that might prejudice the case in advance. The danger in this situation is to be found in the probable growth of ill feeling between commercial interests in Russia and the United States, which in the end may affect political relations unfavorably. Yet even this consideration is said to be insufficient to warrant the administration in departing from the negative policy above outlined.

We Retaliate on Italy.

Washington, June 19.—The secretary of the treasury has issued a circular imposing a countervailing duty on beet sugar imported from or the product of Italy, because of information making it appear "highly probable that sugars produced in that country receive indirect export bounties."

HE WANTS A FORTUNE

And Puts Up a Claim That Looks Like a Pretty Good One.

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—A case involving more than a million and a half of dollars was placed on trial yesterday before Judge Kelley and a jury in the district court. Herbert W. Pearson, the plaintiff, is a geologist employed by the Great Northern road to locate coal fields for the company in Montana and Washington. In his complaint Pearson says he was employed with the understanding that his compensation was to be dependent upon the results obtained. He was allowed $200 a month for expenses, and was to be paid a fair percentage of the value of his discoveries.

In Montana he located a coal field said to contain forty-two square miles, and in addition found another in Washington eighteen square miles in extent. The railroad company then bought up the greater part of the land on which the claim was located and secured options on the remainder.

Pearson values the tracts already held by the road at $14,778,800, and says the Montana tract alone will easily produce 69,115,400 tons of the black fuel. He says he was employed nine months, but was paid only $1,300, leaving a balance due on his expenses account of $300. His services during that time he estimates to have been worth $1,500,000, and consequently sues for that sum.

REMARKABLE AVALANCHE

Two Miles of Slides in the West Virginia Mountains—Two Fatalities.

Keyser, W. Va., June 19.—An avalanche unparalleled in the West Virginia mountains occurred Monday night at Hopeville, Grant county, thirty-eight miles from here. Great sections of the mountain side along the Potomac river for two miles rushed down into the beautiful valley. Thousands of tons of forest trees, immense rocks and earth came down, and the home of Mrs. Andrew Ours, a widow, was completely wrecked. The 22-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ours was instantly killed, and Mrs. Ours is in a dying condition.

A little grandchild, who was spending the night with Mrs. Ours, was grabbed by her when the first warning came, but escape was impossible, and when found the grandmother was buried to her waist in the debris, holding the child in her arms above the chilly debris in which she was fastened. The child only will recover.

PRESENTS A GREAT ISSUE

Says Morris in Speaking of the Recent Supreme Court Decision.

Chicago, June 19.—In an interview here yesterday S. E. Morris, of Indianapolis, ex-counsel general to Paris, said: "The supreme court's recent decision presents an issue which will be the central question in politics for years to come. After we have had a little more experience in trying to govern distant people by force without their consent the voters of this country are going to reverse the decision, just as they did in the Dred Scott decision forty years ago."

"Who will be the next presidential nominee? Well, I personally favor either Chief Justice Fuller or Justice Harlan."

REVENGE OF A WOMAN

Alleged to Have Been Carried Out to the Wreck of Two Families.

GOLD AND JEWELS IN THIS STATE

Feared an Operation and Went Mad—
Unseemly Scene at a Funeral—
State News Items.

Indianapolis, June 19.—Another chapter of the feud between two prominent women was given to the public Monday when Mrs. Alice H. Woodgate sued Mrs. Artemisia Beaupre for $5,000 for alienation of her husband's affections. Mrs. Beaupre sued the Indianapolis Street Railway company for $20,000 for injuries alleged to have been received in alighting from a car several years ago. Mrs. Woodgate was a strong witness against Mrs. Beaupre's claim, and as the case was tried four times the enmity of the women became deep-seated.

Threatened to Break a Heart.

In the complaint for alienation filed Monday Mrs. Woodgate alleges that Mrs. Beaupre declared after the street car case was tried the last time that she would have revenge by breaking Mrs. Woodgate's heart. As the fruit of these declarations Mrs. Woodgate asserts that Mrs. Beaupre began a systematic assault upon the loyalty of her husband, John C. Woodgate, and was finally so successful that she secured the desertion of Mrs. Woodgate by her husband. A suit for divorce is now pending between Mrs. Beaupre and her husband.

Precious Stones and Gold.

Indianapolis, June 19.—State Geologist Blatchley was called on yesterday by R. L. Royce, who represents Indianapolis business men, now prospecting in Brown and Morgan counties, to inspect samples of gold and stones found by the prospectors. The gold is pure, although there is not more than enough to amount to $1 in value. Among the stones inspected by the geologist many garnets were found, and other stones out of the ordinary in form and appearance. Royce said that among the samples which he brought to this city were three diamonds.

Indianapolis, June 19.—Eva Jacobs has been declared insane by a lunacy commission. Recently she consulted a physician and was told that she would have to undergo a serious surgical operation. This preyed on her mind until it gave way under the strain.

SCENE AT THE VERY GRAVE.

Preacher Criticizes Divorce and a Hear-takes Offense Thereat.

Elwood, Ind., June 19.—A scene was created at the grave during the funeral services of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hancock of Kokomo, who have been divorced for some time. The child had been living with its grandfather, Rev. George Edward Walk, pastor of Harrison Street Christian church, of that city, was the officiating minister, and while the last words of the ceremony were being said over the grave Otto Jackson, a brother of Mrs. Hancock, took Rev. Mr. Walk to task for the sermon he had preached.

He demanded that Walk retract certain statements made in his sermon. The text of the discourse was as follows: "When my father and mother forsake me, my Lord will take me up." Walk, in his sermon, vigorously denounced divorce. He disclaimed any personal application of the sermon, but Jackson still insisted, and friends interferred to prevent trouble. To a newspaper reporter afterward Mr. Walk said: "I am tired of indiscriminate laudations at funerals and think the truth should be spoken at all times."

Sir Thomas Lipton Would Like to Have One Ths. Fail.

London, June 18.—Sir Thomas Lipton said to a representative of the Associated Press: "I never contemplated an ocean race, except under yawl rig. I do not think it would be dangerous then. Indeed, it might be a good idea if the owner of each boat sailed on her. For my part, I am perfectly willing to do so."

"So far as the masts go, I would leave that entirely to her designer. If the idea is acceptable to the owners of the Constitution, Independence and Columbia I will enter the two Shamrocks. I think the race should be divided into two legs—the first to the Azores, the second to Falmouth. I hope something may come out of the suggestion, for I believe it would be one of the best sporting events in recent years."

ODELL NAMED FOR PRESIDENT

Senator Platt Thinks It Is on the Cards for the New York Governor.

New York, June 18.—The Journal and Advertiser says this morning: "It seems to me that Governor Odell will be re-elected, and that he will later be president." This was Senator Thomas C. Platt's reply to a question put to him yesterday by a Journal and Advertiser reporter, as to whether Governor Odell is likely to succeed him in the senate two years hence.

"It has been reported that you may resign from the senate ere your term expires?"

"I have no such intention. The only fact is that I propose to retire when my term ends in 1903. The reports that I am in ill health are unfounded."

PINGREE CAN TAKE HIS MEALS

Only Hopeful Symptom in His Case, the London Doctors Say.

London, June 18.—Ex-Governor Pingree's physician did not leave him until midnight yesterday. There is continued apprehension as to his condition. The strongest drugs have failed to check the dysentery, and the only hopeful symptom is that the patient is enabled freely to partake of nourishment.
